Foreword

We, the Chapel Memories Staff, hope that this year's memory book will be a true record of the year 1964-65 at Grays Chapel High School. We realize that our pictures can tell only part of the story, for many memories cannot be written, but kept only in our hearts.

Dedication

We, the Beta Club, do lovingly dedicate the 1965 edition of "Chapel Memories" to Mrs. Gladys Pugh.

Each student has found her to be an inspiration and unfailing friend at all times. She has touched the lives of many who will not forget her kind help and understanding.

We grow through

Junior-Senior

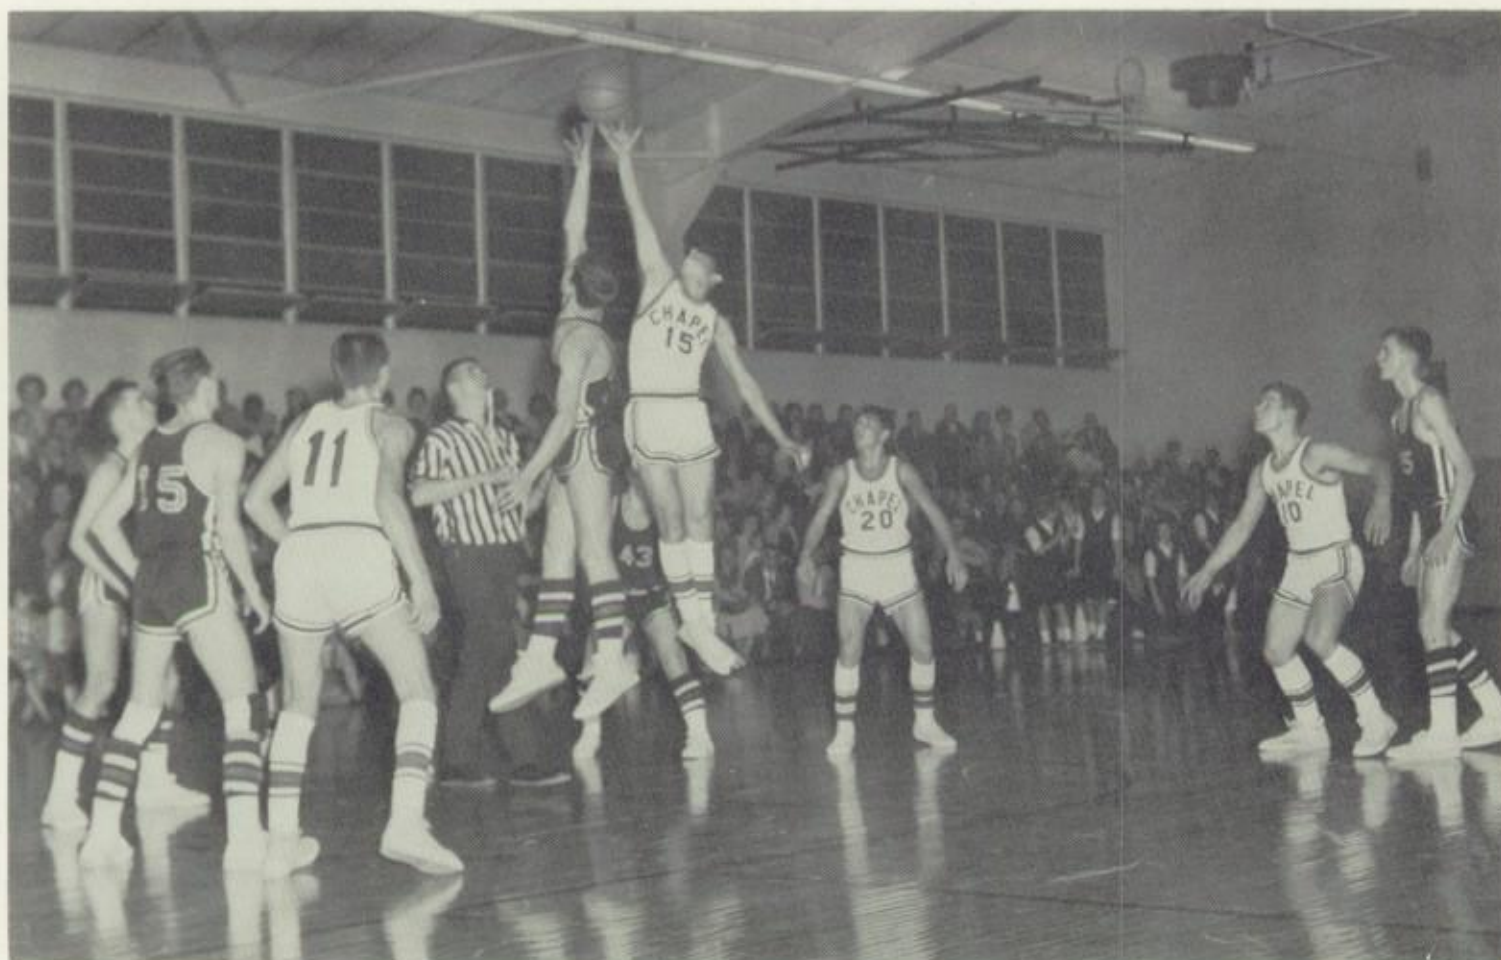

The new Homecoming Queen, Sue Davis, is crowned by last years Queen, Doris Kirkman; while runners-up Janice and Hilda look on.

Activities

Junior-Senior Banquet Waiters and Waitresses: Jerry Johnson, Hal Shelar, Frankie Kivett, Robert Haithcock, Margaret Groce, Charlene Williams, Pat Reeder, and Jean Shelton.

David tips jump ball.

Hal shoots lay-up on fast-break.

Annice tries hard on jump ball.

Jerry and David jump high for rebound.

And just plain

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1965, realizing that our days at Grays Chapel High School are fast coming to a close, do hereby declare our Last Will and Testament.

Article I

To Mr. Thomas, our principal, we express our deepest appreciation for his patience, guidance, and understanding during our high school career.

Article II

To our teachers, we express our deepest thanks for their helpful guidance and patient understanding during our four years of high school.

Article III

We, the Seniors, individually bequeath the following items:

- I, JoAnn Bowman, will Mr. Bortner five books of Family Stamps, so he can get something for nothing.
- I, Linda Cross Britt, will my typewriter to anyone who thinks they can type, and my ability to get along with Mr. Bortner to anyone who has a sense of humor and a mouth to match.
- I, Barbara Brown, will my ability to drive to Ronnie Horrell, that he might be safer than I am.
- I, James Cotner, will my muscular physique to David Luther, being that he needs it worse than I.
- I, Mary Craven, will my position as co-captain for the girls' basketball team to Loretta.
- I, Sue Davis, will my Business Math book to anyone who wants to have lots of worries. I also will my superlative "Best Dressed" to anyone lucky enough to get it.
- I, Joyce Freeman, will my position as Sales Manager of our annual to Donna Routh in hopes that she will do a better job than I did, and my Physics book to anyone who "thinks" he wants it.
- I, Margaret Gooch, will my good times in Mr. Bortner's classes to anyone who thinks he can have as much fun as I have.
- I, Larry Gray, will my bus no. 42 to Mr. Thomas since he likes to have it around.
- I, Anne Hall, will my superlative "Friendliest" to Eugene Haithcock and my superlative "Best Sport" to Johnny Sands.
- I, Henry Hickerson, will my place on the table in the basement to anyone who stays as sleepy as I have this year.
- I, Barbara Hodgin, will my Business Math book to someone who wants to go crazy.
- I, Brenda Hunt, will my seat on Bus 42 to Peggy Flinchum in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I did.
- I, Rebecca Johnson, will my superlative "Most Talented" to anyone who is willing to dress up as Annabelle to get it.
- I, Wanda Julian, will my superlative, "Best Personality", along with all the good I've had at G.C.H.S., to Michael Routh.
- I, Sherry Lamb, will my Physics book to anyone who thinks he can handle it. I will my ability to speak in public to Donna Routh.
- I, Brenda Lineberry, will my acceptance to East Carolina to Janice Brown in hopes that we both have a wonderful time.
- I, Frances Little, will to my sister, Twilla, my love for school, and my position as Grays Chapel correspondent to the Courier Tribune to anyone who wants a headache.
- I, Janice McPherson, do proclaim a gift of my gum to Mr. Bortner. I will my ice scraper to Curtis Melton and my Business Math papers to Charles Routh. I will my "ole faithful" bus to any girl who thinks they can drive an ox cart.
- I, Phil Reynolds, will my ability to be on time to Wayne Reynolds in hopes that he will make better use of it than I did.
- I, Larry Routh, will my ability to be on time for class to David Routh and hope he does better than I did.
- I, Leon Routh, will my catching ability and catching equipment to Hal Shelar.
- I, Linda Routh, leave G.C.H.S. with pleasure and grief.
- I, Joyce Stalker, will my superlative "Cutest" to Sylvia Hackett, my ability to be a scorekeeper to anyone who has nerves of steel, and my typewriter to anyone with large enough fingers that won't go down between the keys.
- I, Betty Strider, will my beagle puppy, Trouser, to Mr. Bortner, to take on his lonely deer hunts. May he bring him good luck in getting his deer.
- I, Bill Suggs, will my superlative "Quietest" to Geary Dodson in hopes that he will make good use of it.
- I, Neal Thomas, will my French book to someone who wants to go crazy fast and my superlatives to some really lucky juniors.
- I, Faye Walker, will my Economics book to my brother Billy in hopes that he will use it more than I did.
- I, Louise Ward, will my bus license and my ability to get along with Mr. Bortner to my brother, Alvin.

Class History

In the year 1953, we the graduating class of 1965 began our educational career at Grays Chapel High School.

The class consisted of 43 boys and girls, eager to learn and advance forward. Along the way, we have lost many of these, but gained others who are still contributing to our present graduating class.

Our first years prepared and trained us for a higher and more meaningful knowledge. These years also hold many fond memories for us.

The years passed and we suddenly found that we had approached the long awaited day we had all dreamed of--we entered high school.

We will never forget the many happy experiences we have shared. The trips on the activity bus, basketball games, parties, club meetings, class rings, and the Junior-Senior Banquet will always remain in our hearts.

As the last of our twelve years draws to an end, we appreciate and praise the helpful guidance shown to us by our teachers, parents, and friends.

Here at Chapel we have made many friends that will never be forgotten. We will always treasure the value of these friendships.

We look to our future years with apprehension as well as joy. Our sojourn here has prepared us for the hard road we must travel soon.

Class Song

From our friends we depart
Though we hold in our heart
The memories lingering on
Joyous days we've spent here
Are a treasure dear
Chapel High will live on
In our hearts.

CHORUS:

Walk on through the world
Walk on toward your goal
With your dreams held high and sure
Walk on, Walk on,
With hope in your heart
Class of '65 march on
Be faithful to your school.

As we leave Chapel High
With a tear in our eye
Please don't be afraid of the dark
We're beginning our life
In a wider world
One that calls each
To find his own place.

Miss Hilda White
was sponsored by the Junior Class and escorted by Eugene Haithcock.

Homecoming Court

The Time--8:30 p.m.

The Date--January 9, 1965

The Place--Grays Chapel Gymnasium

The Event--Homecoming

Excitement filled the gymnasium, while backstage nine lovely girls anxiously awaited their turn to be presented as candidates for Homecoming Queen.

The big moment arrived. Neal Thomas, master of ceremonies, announced the second runner-up--Miss Hilda White--sponsored by the Junior Class. Then came the announcement that Miss Janice Brown, sponsored by the Pep Club, was first runner-up. Both girls were presented bouquets of red roses and escorted to their places of honor on stage.

Then there was that last moment of suspense as both candidates and audience awaited the crowning. A sudden burst of applause accompanied the announcement that Miss Sue Davis, a senior sponsored by the Senior Class, was the 1965 Homecoming Queen. Sue, smiling and happy, was crowned by the 1964 Homecoming Queen, Miss Doris Kirkman, and given a bouquet of a dozen red roses.

Miss Carol Cheek was sponsored by the Monogram Club and escorted by Henry Hickerson.

Miss Cathy Routh was sponsored by the Beta Club and escorted by Robert Fields.

Miss Belinda Vestal was sponsored by the Freshman Class and escorted by Mike Nixon.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America have eight purposes which they strive to fulfill. Some of them are to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking, to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, and to encourage democracy in home and community life. The F.H.A. flower is the red rose and its colors are red and white. Its symbol is octagonal in shape and has a house in the middle held by two hands. This shows that the future is in the hands of its youth.

The F.F.A. is an organization of young future farmers. The primary aim is to develop leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The motto, "Learning to Do - Doing to Learn - Earning to Live - Living to Serve," is filled with practical philosophy, reflecting a spirit and sincerity that shows the true viewpoint of farm youth.

Here at Grays Chapel the Agriculture Department seeds and fertilizes the grounds, grows the shrubs to be planted around the buildings, and does many odd jobs around school.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club of Grays Chapel High School is made up of students who have lettered in one or more of the major sports sponsored.

To become a member of the club, a person must be a bona fide student of the school and meet all requirements set up by the Monogram Club.

The objectives of the Monogram Club are to promote sportsmanship, school loyalty and spirit, and clean, wholesome participation in athletic contests.

Librarians

Mrs. Gladys Pugh - Head Librarian

Our library, as the center of the school, is an integral part of the total school program. The library serves as a materials center for both printed and audio-visual aids. The librarian and student assistants strive to give adequate library service to students and teachers.

The annual staff wishes to express its appreciation to the many people who have stood behind us with encouraging words and deeds. To you we give our special thanks. Also to our sponsor goes our thanks.

We hope that you will enjoy the 1965 annual and the many memories that are portrayed here in pictures.

Annual Staff

Our sponsor, Mr. Mills, advises the editor, Neal Thomas, and assistant editor, Harriette Anderson, about the work on the annual dummy.

Linda Routh, Business Manager, and her assistants, Cathy Routh and Wilma Coward, look over the record of annual ads sold.

Joyce Freeman, Sales Manager, and Donna Routh, Assistant Sales Manager, check over the annual receipts.

Next year's annual staff look for ideas for the next edition of CHAPEL MEMORIES.

Hawk Talk Staff

Sue, Linda, and Brenda work with their sponsor, Mr. Davis, to publish the first edition of the HAWK TALK. Each member of the staff works hard to publish each edition to make it the best yet.

Mr. York explains the plays of the next quarter to the girls.

The girls' basketball team, under the coaching of Mr. Dick York, have fought hard to bring home the banner of victory. Although not quite as successful as was hoped, Chapel is still mighty proud of its girls' team.
